LIFE.
What is life? I do not know
Only this—I love it so;
Cling to it with bating breath,
Fearing lest my rival, Death,
Snatch it from me, and I drain
In one single draught of pain
The full measure; at its best—
Life is but a pilgrim's quest.
What is life? I cannot tell
Only this—I prize it well;
'Bove Golconda's fabled gems,
'Bove the clamorous praise of men;
Bright may fame and glory gleam
Fair the castle of my dreams;
Yet, withal, e'er at its best,
Life is but a pilgrim's quest.
What is life? I cannot say
Only this—the far-away
Calls me o'er a charter sea
To the port of Mystery;
And my ship shall anchor there,
Be its journey foul or fair;
Deep within a pulseless breast
I shall find the pilgrim's quest.
—Frank Grubbs, Good Hope.

Last Thursday A. F. Leonard bought 315
hogs from "Hog" Royalty that weighed 78, 190 pounds, at $7.80 per hundred. The lot cost him $6,096.23. Mr. Leonard sold them to the Louisville Packing Company at $8.45 per hundred. This was said to be the nicest lot of hogs in Central Kentucky.—Harrodsburg Republican.

Truth is stranger than fiction but what is this? A farmer over in Scioto county found a turtle upon whose shell Aaron Baker in 1833 cut his name and the date. The turtle obligingly turned up again in 1864 and Aaron's son carved his name and the date upon the historic shell.
In 1899 a grandson followed suit with his name and the date, and now a great-grandson has come upon that same old turtle and has done as his forebears did.—Adams County Record.

Charles Frederick, an employe at the Keystone Commercial Company's plant in West Third street, and who lives in one of the cottages in Second street a few doors East of Limestone street, had somewhat of a thrilling and exciting experience Sunday night about 9 o'clock. On returning home at that hour he found two strange white men sitting on his steps. When accosted as to their presence there they at once became pugnacious and a fight ensued. Frederick knocked one of his assailants down, but was himself floored by the other fellow. Frederick was compelled to make a hasty retreat by way of a side alley into his home. In the encounter Frederick lost a fine revolver, the weapon being wrenched out of his hand by one of the two strangers.

AN EX-MAYSVILLIAN

Found Dead From Alcoholism in a
Columbus, Ohio, Hotel

Harry M. Dion, formerly of this city, was found dead in his room at the Jefferson Hotel, Columbus, O., Tuesday. According to a newspaper account Dion was picked up by the police Monday morning in a saloon in that city while in a very serious condition, and was taken to several of the hospitals, but they refused to treat him because of his condition.

He was taken back to his room in the hotel
Monday noon and was found dead in his bed next morning, his death being attributed to alcoholism.

Dion married an estimable young lady here,
and at one time was employed in the flouring mill of Roberts & Keefer. Owing to his dissipated habits his wife left him years ago and is now living with her father in Ohio.

The "REGAL" Shoe

Is the only shoe made not afraid to be cut up by the buzz-saw. The Regal Buzz-Saw in our show-window aroused considerable excitement. Hundreds of people watched the operator as he ripped and slashed Regals in every way imaginable to show just what the Shoes are made of. The insides of the Shoes were clearly disclosed, showing the linings, oak bark tanned soles, whole lifts in the heels, oak bark tanned counters and toe boxes and other parts used in making Regals—parts which are of vital importance, but which are hidden from the sight of purchasers. Of course, the onlookers began to wonder what was in the shoes they were wearing and made comparisons. Many went in our Shoe Department and came out later in a pleasant mood with a box under their arms.

ROBERT FULTON is another example of a man reaping all the posthumous honors for something some other person accomplished. There was a half dozen steamboats before the initial trip of the Clermont, yet FULTON is accorded all the glory.

A card to THE LEDGER from J. Barbour Russell states that he and his wife were in the great Hudson-Fulton parade on the Hudson river at New York. They are stopping at the New Hoffman House, one of the most regal in that city. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wikoff of Maysville are also enjoying the big Gotham event, as are several other Maysvillians.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound in your ears, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Frank and Noel Claypool of Forest avenue were arrested last evening on a charge of having wilfully and maliciously cut with intent to kill one B. Holtzclaw, a bricklayer. The affray is said to have taken place near the Colored school house in Fifth street Sunday night. The Claypool boys have borne a good reputation heretofore.

Mr. Willis VanPelt, the colored janitor at the Cox Building, was assaulted last night by an unknown party in a murderous manner. He was on his way to the C. and O. Depot to meet Lieutenant-Governor Cox, who was expected to arrive on the 11 o'clock train. In crossing the bridge at the foot of Short street he was struck by one of several parties standing on the bridge and knocked down. He sought to escape the ruffians by flight, but was overtaken and choked and beaten in a fearful manner. His outcries attracted the people of the neighborhood, who came to his rescue, else he would undoubtedly have been murdered. He still bears the marks of his rough usage.

The old duties stood on eleven hundred articles of the Dingley Tariff as they were, and were lowered upon three times as many as they were raised; hence it was a downward revision.—Norwich Bulletin.

The leaders of the Burley Society at Winchester were much elated over a telegram received there announcing that James B. Haggin, owner of Elmendorf, at Lexington, had pooled his 360 acres of tobacco.

The Wall Street Journal, discussing the cost of living, says: "Our adverse balance of trade for August adds to the evidence that the rise in the cost of living is approaching a climax—for the present movement, at least."

The output of smoking and chewing tobacco for August was 34,773,877 as compared with 33,076,364 last year. Cigars increased 40-850,867 pounds; small cigars decreased 603-389, while cigarettes showed a big increase of 152,320,122.

James B. Haggin, owner of Elmendorf, has pooled his 400,000 pounds of tobacco grown this year with the Burley Society and his action will go a long way towards making 1909 pool a success. Haggin refused to join last year because of the "night rider" troubles and sold his tobacco at the end of the season in Cincinnati. J. N. Camden, who has the second largest crop, estimated at 180,000 pounds, it was announced, has also entered the pool.

Not one of these women ever received compensation in any form for the use of their names in this advertisement—but are willing that we should refer to them because of the good they may do other suffering women to prove that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a reliable and honest medicine, and that the statements made in our advertisements regarding its merit are the truth and nothing but the truth.

A HELPING HAND.

Is Gladly Extended By a Maysville Citizen.

There are many enthusiastic citizens in Maysville prepared to tell their experience for the public good. Testimony from such a source is the best of evidence, and will prove a "helping hand" to scores of readers. Read the following statement:

Mrs. John E. Burns of Maysville, Ky., says: "I value Doan's Kidney Pills just as highly today as when I gave a statement in their favor some years ago. I was subject to frequent attacks of kidney trouble and at times the pain in my back was so acute that I was confined to my bed for days. The quick and decided relief I obtained from Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, was very gratifying, and during the years which have since elapsed, I have had no serious return of kidney trouble. On some occasions, I have felt a slight backache, but a few doses of this valuable remedy have never failed to ward off any serious attack."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ROYAL BLUE

For Laundry Use.

Is a very high grade of Bluing and specially prepared with the utmost care. Gives clothes a bright, fresh shade, with a beautiful lustre. It does in no way streak the clothes, as these cheap, inferior grades do. Many of the finest laundries throughout the country use this Bluing daily with perfect satisfaction. You will like it. One ten cent powder, put into a quart of clear fresh water, will make you as much excellent Bluing, in liquid form, as you pay 50 cents for, and of a much better quality. You can make half a pint of excellent Blue Ink by dissolving the powder in half pint of water. Prepared by
